

Joint Honors Award Criteria & Nomination Form

Recognizes persons for outstanding cooperation between ESI and other professional or civic organizations. This award is not necessarily made annually, and is limited to one award per year.

Criteria / Method of Selection

Candidates shall demonstrate collaborative efforts between the Engineering Society of Illinois and other professional or civic organization to foster cooperation in promoting the Society, the practice of professional engineering or the future of the profession. The Honors and Awards Committee may award not more than one nominee each year. Nominations shall be in the format and order prescribed below.

Nominee: _____

Email Address: _____

Address: _____

Nomination Submitted by: _____

Nominator Phone: _____

Nominator Email: _____

Biographical Description

Provide educational and professional background, including collaborative activities with ESI, and if applicable, ESI offices held.

Why the Nominee is Qualified for the Award

Provide specific details of the qualification.

Citation

Summarize the outstanding service provided.

Required Attachments:

- Full resume for nominee
- Headshot of nominee
- Two letters of recommendation from ESI Members.

All nominations are due to info@illinoisengineer.com no later than May 1 of each year.